

FIRE ADDS TO HORROR

Details of Storm at Galveston.

DEATH LIST FOURTEEN

Property Loss May Reach Huge Sum of $15,000,000.

Houston, Tex., Aug. 19.—Fourteen dead in Galveston and property loss estimated all the way from $5,000,000 to $15,000,000 in the chaotic state of affairs there is the toll in that city of one of the most severe storms in gulf coast history. The city was saved from a repetition of the 1900 disaster only by the big sea wall which has held except in one spot.

The tug Gertrude, under government charter, arrived here direct from Galveston.

On board the tug were Captain F. N. Nelson of the United States engineering service and several other persons. According to Captain D. E. Dujay of the Gertrude and Captain Nelson many of the smaller houses in the east and west end of Galveston were demolished. About 300 large and small craft of all descriptions, including big steamers, schooners, dredges, barges and launches, were in the harbor when the storm struck Galveston Monday. Practically all the small vessels were wrecked, beached or damaged and many of the larger vessels beached and damaged.

Captain Dujay said the death list might be increased by the drowning of crews of some of these ships.

Twenty-five members of the crew of the government dredge San Bernardo, which sank in the intercoastal canal below Galveston during the hurricane, may have been drowned. The government dredge Sam Houston went aground near Galveston and some of the crew of fifty-six are reported lost. These casualties, if confirmed, will increase the death toll.

City Under Martial Law.

Mayor Lewis Fisher placed the city under military rule at 9 o'clock Monday night because looting had been started, mostly by negroes. Four regiments of the United States army, the Fourth, Seventh, Nineteenth and Twenty-eighth, have been patrolling the city, which has been divided into four districts.

Passengers on the Gertrude said it was reported that twenty negroes who were caught while looting stores were shot and killed by soldiers Monday night, but this could not be confirmed.

Fire broke out in the Armour packing plant and the establishment was destroyed, it is said. Fire also destroyed pier No. 21 and a large cotton warehouse, and when the Gertrude left another fire was raging in a printing house.

An interned Austrian steamer rescued ninety men, women and children from Port Boliver just before the storm broke.

The water, it was said, was higher in the streets than in 1900, being six to eight feet in the business section. The first messenger from the stricken island to the mainland reached Houston, bringing a summary of the results of the storm which began Monday afternoon and raged until dawn Tuesday. Besides the loss of life Galveston is covered with the debris of about 500 houses which were crushed by the wind and tidal waves.

Big Break in Sea Wall.

A thousand feet of the sea wall which connects Galveston with the shore has been cut in two at the drawbridge.

Three fires have done great damage.

Those who attempt to estimate the financial loss the city has undergone say that it will equal that of the 1900 storm, which was estimated at $15,000,000.

For more than forty-eight hours Galveston was wholly out of touch with the world, except for a few feeble wireless messages.

The storm reached its height at 3 a. m. Tuesday, with a wind velocity of ninety-two miles an hour, before which the frail wood cottages on the boulevard along the sea wall crumpled.

Despite the fact that a thousand feet of the wall was battered away, Galveston attributes its salvation as a city to the big dyke which was built after the storm of 1900. One break of twenty-five feet wide in front of the Galvez hotel led in most of the water that damaged the residential section.

The mayor proclaimed the city under martial law and after a survey of the losses announced that Galveston would not call on other communities for aid.

The surprisingly low loss of life is due probably to the fact that the popu-

Premier Asquith's Evidence That Dardanelles Campaign is Succeeding

This is the first photograph directly from the Dardanelles to show Turkish prisoners in the hands of the British. These forlorn men were huddled behind their own barbed wire entanglements at Sedul Bahr. They had erected these wires to keep out the British. Conditions were so primitive that the prisoners had to sleep on the rolling sand dunes. The tent in the background is where their scant meals are cooked.

RUSSIANS MAKE RAPID GETAWAY

German Forces Capture Fortress of Kovno.

TRIUMPH FOR 16-INCH GUNS

Besides Opening the Way to Vilna the Fall of Kovno May Allow the Teutonic Armies to Reach the Railway Running to Petrograd and Also Threaten the Russian Flank.

London, Aug. 19.—The capture of the fortress of Kovno is another triumph of the German sixteen-inch guns, which throughout the present war have been brought against no fortifications they were unable to subdue.

Besides opening the way to Vilna which is an open town from which most of the inhabitants have departed and from which everything that might be of use to the invaders has been removed, the fall of the fortress takes away the last, with the exception of the Russian field army, to the main line railway to the capital and also places the Germans in a position to threaten the flanks of the Russian armies retreating to the Brest-Litovsk line and those operating in southern Courland.

Grand Duke Nicholas apparently expected the fall of Kovno, for his armies are hastening their retirement eastward in Poland.

They still hold their own from Kovno to the south of Ossowetz, but south of that they are being pressed from the northwest by Generals von Schalz and von Gallwitz and from the west by Archduke Leopold, who has crossed the Bug river and is approaching the Brest-Litovsk and Bialystok railway.

It is the same in the south, where General von Mackensen, after many rebuffs, finally has succeeded in driving the Muscovites into their outer positions of the fortress of Brest-Litovsk.

Army in Serious Danger.

For the first time since he began his retirement from western Galicia in May, Grand Duke Nicholas, in the opinion of military observers, finds part of his army in serious danger of envelopment. The military writers express curiosity as to how he will extricate it.

The Russian commander continues an orderly retreat, as is evidenced by the fact that, outside of the guns taken with the fortress of Kovno or captured in the forts of Novogeorgievsk, two more of which have fallen, the Germans make no claim to the capture of artillery. It would appear also that few prisoners have been taken, which doubtless means that a considerable part of the Austro-Germans in their most recent advance have met with serious fighting.

With Kovno in German hands and another German army across the Bug south of Brest-Litovsk, a speedy exit, according to military observers, is the only safe one for the Russians if they are to escape before the second set of pincers prepared for them is closed.

General Ian Hamilton, commander of the allied forces on the Gallipoli peninsula, announces an advance by the new force of allied troops which landed at Suvla bay and the repulse of a Turkish attack against the right flank of the Australians. The Turks, on the other hand, say that all the British attacks were repulsed.

Any progress made by the British at Suvla bay, would, according to the military experts, be important, as it would threaten the Turks who are facing the Australians down the coast.

WHITE STAR LINER ARABIC SUNK BY SUBMARINE OFF IRISH COAST---PASSENGER LIST 435 AND CREW LOSS OF LIVES UNKNOWN, REPORTS CONFLICTING

(By United Press)

SINKING OF ARABIC CONFIRMED BY LONDON

London, August 19, 1:15 p. m.—An official telegram says that the sinking of the Arabic by submarine off the west coast of Ireland near Fastnet has been confirmed.

THE MOST CRITICAL SITUATION SINCE SINKING OF THE MAINE

Washington, August 19, 2:44 p. m.—If it is true that there were Americans on board the Arabic, in the face of President Wilson's latest note, it is conceded that the situation is the most critical since the sinking of the Maine.

FOUR HUNDRED SAVED

Queenstown, August 19, 2:44 p. m.—The White Star offices have reported 400 saved from the Arabic, submarined off the west Irish coast, the vessel being enroute here. If this is true only 35 are unaccounted for.

London, Aug. 19.—The White Star liner Arabic, carrying 435 passengers and crew, bound from Liverpool to New York, was torpedoed and sunk off the southwest coast of Ireland, near Fastnet this morning. Contradictory reports are received regarding the crew. The first report was that all were saved. Liverpool then reported that some lives were lost. The Arabic was torpedoed in the course of other vessels and carried a wireless, hence it is believed possible that other vessels came to her rescue. It is not known whether she carried Americans, or whether Capt. Finch attempted to escape the submarine, and it is therefore unknown whether the Arabic fell into the category of deliberately unfriendly acts Pres. Wilson recently mentioned in his note.

STATE DEPARTMENT PERTURBED

Washington, Aug. 19.—The state department hastened to ascertain the details of the sinking of the Arabic and was plainly perturbed. Great concern is expressed as to whether any Americans were aboard.

ZEPPELINS RAID LONDON

(By United Press)

Berlin, Aug. 19.—Zeppelins on Tuesday bombarded the city of London and important establishments along the Thames. The admiralty announced this afternoon that the raid was with good results. The Zeppelins returned safely.

GERMANS SCORING VICTORIES

Berlin, Aug. 19.—Fighting hard both ends of the Russian line, the Germans are scoring important victories. Gen. Mackensen has penetrated the outer forts of Brest-Litovsk. Two more forts at Iovogorovsk were captured with a thousand prisoners and 125 cannons.

FRENCH CAPTURE CROSS ROADS

Paris, Aug. 19.—The French war department in an official statement says the most important French victory in several weeks took place when the French captured the crossroads at Notre Dame Delorette through which Arras, Bethune and Angres Abbeville highways run.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Information reached Washington that Captain R. E. Owen, British Royal Engineers, son-in-law of William Bryan, has been "mentioned in orders" by Sir Ian Hamilton, British commander at the Dardanelles, for distinguished gallantry in action.

Meat Ban Is Removed.

Paris, Aug. 19.—The government committees in charge of provisioning Paris decided to recommend that all restrictions be removed from the sale of refrigerated meats imported from America. Hitherto only certain dealers have been permitted to sell this meat. The average price of a carcass is equivalent to about 15 cents a pound.

Strikers Given More Wages.

Bridgeport, Conn., Aug. 19.—The strike of 3,800 employees of Warner Bros. corset factory here was virtually ended when the strikers accepted a compromise offer of the company whereby they will receive an eight-hour day and an increase of 12 1/2 per cent in wages.

TWO HEADS ON ONE STALK

Freak Yields of Wheat Reported From Grain Districts.

Fargo, N. D., Aug. 19.—North Dakota has the queerest, as well as perhaps the largest, grain crop ever raised in any country of like area. In the southeast corner of the state there are whole fields in which there are two heads to the stalk.

Farmers who came to North Dakota from Indiana, Illinois and Iowa are unable to account for the growth, except that it is a freak of nature resulting from exceptionally fine growing weather following a rainy period. They say that they never heard of such a growth in the states in which they formerly lived. Pioneer North Dakotans say the thing is new to them, too.

The double heads, in practically all cases, are full size and the kernels are well filled. In some instances the double growth will mean almost double the ordinary crop, which would greatly increase the 116,300,000 bushel government wheat estimate for the state, a yield that sets a new record.

M. VENIZELOS.

Seeks Good Terms Before
Greece Joins the Allies.

GREECE ASKS CONCESSIONS

Cannot Afford to Risk War Without Some Reward.

London, Aug. 19.—Developments in the Balkans are expected soon by the European capitals. The reported acceptance by Eleutherios Venizelos of the task of forming a new Greek cabinet, in which he would be premier, is the chief basis for this belief.

The participation in the war of Greece, as well as the other Balkan nations, is contingent almost entirely upon territorial concessions. M. Venizelos is reported in official dispatches to hold the view that his country cannot afford to risk war unless she can hope to realize her ambition of becoming a predominant nation in Southern Europe.

James Gray thinks President Wilson's Mexican policy is "habby." And to think that James was once the beloved candidate of the Minnesota democracy for governor. James has a "habby" opinion of Minnesota democracy, however, for the manner in which they treated him at the polls.

Headlines in other papers read:
"Sixty speeders of automobiles fined in Dillworth within three days."
"Scorchers get heavy fines in Wilsona."

"Police brought in 15 violators of the speed law in Minneapolis on Sunday."

Did you ever stop to think that there is some fast driving in Brainerd that should be checked, or will those who go at a break-neck speed be allowed to keep it up until the expected happens. It is best to put the brake on before someone is killed or maimed for life.

Brainerd merchants are preparing for a heavy fall trade and the stores of the city are going to offer a line of goods that will be so complete in assortment and right in price that there will be no excuse for any resident of Brainerd or vicinity buying a dollar's worth of goods in the twin cities, or any city outside of Brainerd.
And mail order houses are included in this article, for your noney sent out of town does not bring you the advantages it would if spent at home. "The Fergus Falls Journal hits the nail on the head when it says:

"If there is one thing which Fergus Falls has reason to be proud, it is its stores; anyone living within forty miles of the city will find it well worth while to come here from time to time to look over the big stocks of new, up-to-date goods.
People living in the city or vicinity should take a justifiable pride in supporting merchants who show the enterprise that is shown by the merchants of Fergus Falls. There is not a store in this city today that is not kept up in a manner to make it worthy of public patronage."
And the same conditions exist in Brainerd as in Fergus Falls.

SCHOOL OPENS SEPTEMBER 7

On Tuesday After Labor Day Children Will be Glad to Resume Their Studies Again

NEW DEPARTMENTS ARE NAMED

Normal Training in Charge of Mrs. Lawrence, Agricultural With Mr. Pflughoeft in Charge

The Brainerd schools will open on September 7, the Tuesday following Labor Day. As usual a considerable number of new teachers will take the places of teachers who have left to accept better paying positions. Parties having room or board to offer might drop a postal containing name and address and location to the superintendent of schools and the list of parties will be furnished to the teachers as they arrive in town.

There will be a strong normal training department this year in charge of Mrs. Lawrence, a normal training teacher of wide experience, who has been working as critic teacher in two of the largest state normal schools, and who comes most highly recommended. All girls contemplating entering this department will do well to register by postal once, if they did not do so before the close of school, as the number who may enter is limited by state regulations.

The department of agriculture will be opened for the first time this year in charge of a practical agricultural man, Mr. Pflughoeft, from the agricultural school at Madison, Wis.

Mr. Pflughoeft has been brought up on a farm and in addition to his agricultural training at the Wisconsin university, has had experience for several years as county agent in Carlton county and consequently is thoroughly familiar with agricultural conditions in the cut-over country of Northern Minnesota.

He comes well recommended by both state and county authorities of Minnesota.

MINE WORKING ON THIRD DRIFT

Iron Mountain Mine Employing More Miners and the Town of Mangane is Flourishing

EVERY HOUSE IN TOWN RENTED

Manganese, Minn., August 19.—The third drift has now been opened up in the Iron Mountain mine and a gang of five men are busy in each of the drifts to get the ore out, from two to three cars of ore are mined daily.

Every house in Manganese has been rented and the big question is, how can houses be built fast enough for the people who want to move in to town.

All the graded streets have been in the best of condition, as well as all roads leading into town. Many new streets have been brushed out and the grading of some of them will begin this week. Bids for more cement walks have been advertised and the contract will be awarded in a few days.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

At The Grand

The charm, the drama and distinctly individual characters conceived by Bret Harte and given literary expression in his story "M'liiss"—acted on the stage by Annie Pixley some twenty-five years ago—offered photoplay possibilities that inspired this five part production of the World Film Corporation. Besides directing the picture, O. A. G. Lund played Don Jose, the villain, with Howard Eastbrook cast as Gray, the schoolmaster, and Barbara Tennant in the title role. Supporting these actors is a quite numerous company that traveled from New Jersey to St. Augustine, Fla., and on to Asheville, N. C., in order to get the proper variety of settings for a colorful subject.

It is colorful, and no mistake, with the tropical luxuriance of Spanish gardens as a rich background for the second period of Melissa's career, when she has learned to dance and flirt and wear pretty clothes, and when the lean days of poverty in Smith's Pocket are but a remembrance. In the transition from the barren uselessness of a deserted Nevada claim to the splendor of a rich estate, there is a welcome contrast of environment and accompanying it, of course, is the development of the character of "M'liiss." We find her a ragged, tempestuous little daughter of the wild, and leave her in silks and laces, the owner of productive lands and about to become the wife of the schoolmaster, whom she never quite forgot.

Miss Tennant has by far the most difficult part in the picture and presents the character with praiseworthy sincerity. There is no little appeal in her portrayal of the unhappy girl, whose father dies a drunkard and whose best friend, really her only friend, is Gray. Mr. Eastbrook is manly, likable and an altogether satisfactory figure as the stalwart young American engaged in training the rising generation of Smith's Pocket.

In the earlier reels showing with much detail the primitive life of the Nevada community and later on when the action is supposed to transpire in Southern California, there are a number of scenes of individual excellence—M'liiss attending the country circus, then in after years, the fete given in her honor, and best of all the spectacular burning of Gray's oil wells.

The virtues of the story and its picturesque presentation make "M'liiss" a pleasing film, reminiscent of the romantic period of which Bret Harte wrote. Without question, the romance lends itself well to photoplay adaptation, for it deals with a phase of American life that naturally suggests a pictorial narrative of dramatic incidents.

"M' LISS"

This title does not really make one curious to see this charming 5 reel play, but let it be known that Bret Harte wrote this story which lends itself most wonderfully to the silent drama. The story reaches from Nevada to southern California, introducing some magnificent scenery and a conflagration at the oil wells that is a marvel of picturization.

THE GREAT TEXAS STORM CLAIMS LIVES AND MILLIONS

(By United Press)

Worst Storm in Half a Century

Galveston, Aug. 19.—Southeastern Texas has just passed through the worst storm in its history during the past half century, with a possible loss of life of a hundred. The property loss is placed at thirty millions. The great sea wall erected by that city actually saved Galveston from a fate worse than that of 1900, which was the cause of building the protection for just such an emergency as has just occurred.

DEAD NOW NUMBER 115

Dallas, Aug. 19.—The known dead number 115 as a result of the recent storm. The lists are constantly growing. Two score of boats are missing, with crews totalling 300, believed to be lost. Unconfirmed reports from villages along the coast with populations of a thousand, are swept away, which raised fears that the loss may reach thousands, but it is believed a majority of the residents of these villages are saved. The casualties are less than expected.

GOVERNMENT DREDGE ASHORE

Galveston, Aug. 19.—The government dredge San Jacinto is ashore on Redash reef. The crew is alive and the launch Pelican with 75 passengers have landed. Desperate conditions have been experienced on account of exposure for two days. The steamship Ribston, lifted to the railroad tracks high and dry, is safe.

BOLIVER SWEEPED BARE

Galveston, Aug. 19.—Nothing has been reported accurately on the mainland conditions. The port of Boliver, with 1,500 population, is swept bare and it is not known regarding the number saved.

DEAD AT GALVESTON

Houston, Tex., Aug. 19.—Joe Kneaves, manager of the Shreveport baseball team, who was rescued, says from 50 to 100 are dead in Galveston.

DEMAND ANNEXATION OF BELGIUM

By J. W. T. Mason

Pan-Germanism is demanding the annexation of Belgium as the principal price Germany must exact from her enemies to pay for the cost of the war. The movement to force the Belgians into the German empire has been concealed beneath the surface until the present moment. Its sudden appearance in the open is due to the Teutonic victories in Russia, which are causing many Germans to believe they can dictate the terms of peace which will end the war.

The German government, itself, is for the moment giving no encouragement to the Belgian annexationists. Anti-annexationists, among whom are Dr. Bernhard Dernburg, have signed a petition to the imperial chancellor, Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, urging the danger to Germany of trying to absorb alien and reluctant nationalities. That a counter petition to the government has been made necessary shows how extensive the demand for permanently seizing Belgium has become.

Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg is believed personally to favor the restoration to independence to Belgium, but the prestige of the chancellor is not sufficient to cause his influence to be felt extensively. It is probable, too, that political opponents of von Bethmann-Hollweg are trying to embarrass him by urging Belgium's annexation.

The popular demand that Belgium shall be made a conquered province does not take into consideration the protection that is offered to Belgium's sovereignty by the British blockade of Germany and the seizure of Germany's colonies. Even though it may turn out to be impossible to drive the German armies out of Belgium by a land campaign, nevertheless, there seems to be no possibility that the Germans can regain their colonies or cause England to lift her blockade unless Belgium is voluntarily evacuated.

DRASTIC PROBE IN LYNCHING OF FRANK

Rewards Will Be Offered for Conviction of Slayers.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 19.—Plans for investigating the abduction and lynching of Leo M. Frank went forward steadily. Governor Harris said a thorough inquiry would be made, and that rewards would be offered for the arrest and conviction of the men who took Frank from the state prison at Milledgeville and hanged him near Marietta.

"I am inexpressibly shocked," said the governor. "This affair has placed a blot upon the fair name of our state that can never be wiped out. The lynching will be probed to the bottom and every effort within my power will be made to bring the guilty members of the mob to justice."

Governor Harris will have a conference with the three members of the state prison commission. He hopes to obtain information from the commissioners and possibly some of the prison officials who were overpowered that will lead to the identification of some of the lynchers.

OPPOSES GENERAL STRIKE

Machinists' Executive Board Desires Eight-Hour Day.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Agitation for a national strike in munition plants, as proposed by J. J. Keppeler, vice president of the International Association of Machinists, was repudiated here by the executive board of the association.

The board determined, however, to wage vigorously a general campaign for an eight-hour day in all shops.

Vice President Keppeler will appear before the executive board to urge his national strike proposal despite this action.

Unalterable opposition to the so called scientific shop management system installed by the government in the arsenal at Watertown, N. Y., was determined on by the executive board, which voted to support machinist employees of that arsenal "to the fullest extent" in their campaign against the system.

6100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is cataracts. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Cataracts are a constitutional disease, require a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Bankers Arranging to Float Big British Loan.

MAY BE ONLY $150,000,000

Cable Conferences Between New York and London Show That International Bankers Would Rather Have a Small Loan Oversubscribed Than See a Large One Fail.

New York, Aug. 19.—A reduction in the proposed foreign loan to be floated from the half billion dollars first suggested to $100,000,000 or $150,000,000 seemed probable as the result of conferences of international financiers here and by cable between this city and London.

While it is thought generally that this amount will be utterly inadequate to meet the volume of bills which are coming due rapidly against foreign buyers of American supplies it is felt that the sum will be sufficient to tight the foreign exchange markets temporarily, at least, and restore to normal value the foreign moneys now at low levels of depreciation.

The chief reason for the contemplated reduction in the size of the loan, however, is understood to be the belief that a large loan, such as was first projected, cannot be readily placed here.

Wires to England were busy with questions and answers, proposals and suggestions, between bankers in this city and financiers in London, to whom the present depression in exchange markets has been a source of keen apprehension for several days past.

In considering a loan of $100,000,000 to $150,000,000 to Great Britain, instead of the $500,000,000 originally under advisement, local banks evidently sought immediate, rather than permanent relief for the situation. A loan of $150,000,000, it was pointed out, on the ordinary basis of four to one, would obtain a credit of $600,000,000 in this country.

According to reports collateral to the proposed loan is to consist partly of American securities, partly of British external notes and partly other collateral of a character not yet determined.

Reasons for this radical reduction caused much speculation. Wall street heard that a canvass had been made by the syndicate considering the loan and that the result of this canvass showed that there is not now a widespread demand for foreign securities of this character.

Besides it was thought that the international bankers who propose to finance the loan would not hazard its failure by making the amount too large but would prefer to have a smaller loan oversubscribed than see a large one fail.

WILL ADVERTISE MINNESOTA

Papers Will Issue Special Editions Week of Oct. 10.

St. Paul, Aug. 19.—More than 300 Minnesota newspaper publishers already have joined the "newspaper week" movement and have agreed to get out special editions during the week of Oct. 10, setting forth the advantages of Minnesota for homeseekers.

The Newspaper Week committee of the Minnesota Editorial Association, which is back of the movement, has sent out a second letter to the editors with suggestions for the special edition. The committee will provide several short stories of Minnesota, it announces, from which the editors may select to adorn their first page.

It is proposed also for each paper to print coupons for orders subscribers may send in for extra copies to send to friends in other states. This is the method by which California's "newspaper week" propaganda was carried to millions of readers in other states.

Mr. Reinsch is understood to have told the president he did not expect the Chinese government would be changed from a republic to a monarchy.

Our Eyes and Reflected Light.

The human eye has passed through thousands of years of evolution until it has become best adapted to sunlight or skylight coming obliquely from above and resents strong illumination from any other direction. It is apparent that snow blindness, distress from white sand or water is not caused by the intensity of the light so much as by the fact that it is reflected up instead of down and is not stopped by the rather transparent lower eyelid. If the lower part of the eye is guarded with goggles no difficulty is found.

DANIELS ASKS FOR EVIDENCE OF SPY

Probes Charge Naval Employee Gets German Pay.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Secretary Daniels announced that he has asked John R. Rathom, publisher of the Providence (R. I.) Journal, to submit any evidence he may have to substantiate a published statement credited to him that a civil employee of the navy department is in the pay of the German government.

Mr. Daniels also revealed that after a recent conference with Mr. Rathom the department had assigned additional officers and men to the naval force operating the German owned commercial wireless plant at Sayville, L. I., and had ordered the most rigid precautions against the dispatch of unneutral messages in secret code.

Every suspected message was ordered forwarded to the department for examination. Since then, the secretary said, many dispatches have been submitted to the department and three or four have been returned to the senders for rewriting.

Evidence submitted by Mr. Rathom, who had made an investigation with the aid of wireless experts, was considered by Secretary Daniels and the members of the government neutrality board before the navy department took over the Sayville station some time ago.

IF BACKACHE OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat and take a glass of Salts to flush out Kidneys—Drink plenty water.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush out the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.
